

Prajwal abuse clips: Revanna gets bail in kidnapping case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
BENGALURU, MAY 13

A SPECIAL court for elected representatives in Bengaluru on Monday granted conditional bail to JD(S) MLA H D Revanna, who is accused of kidnapping a woman allegedly sexually assaulted by his son Prajwal Revanna, a JD(S) MP from Hassan Lok Sabha seat in Karnataka.

The court approved the bail to Revanna on a personal bond of Rs 5 lakh with two sureties and on the condition that he "shall not threaten and tamper with the prosecution witnesses or the complainant and victim". He has been barred from entering the "permanent place of residence of the victim directly or indirectly till further orders".

According to sources, Revanna is likely to be released from prison on Tuesday.

The MLA was arrested by Special Investigation Team (SIT) of the Karnataka Police, constituted by the Siddaramaiah government to investigate allegations of sexual assault on multiple women by Prajwal. The allegations were levelled after videos of sexual assault, allegedly involving the Hassan MP, emerged in the public domain ahead of the Lok Sabha elections in Karnataka on April 26.

HC junks plea for EC action against PM for 'hate speech'

MALAVIKA PRASAD
NEW DELHI, MAY 13

THE DELHI High Court on Monday dismissed a petition seeking direction to EC to take "immediate action" against PM Narendra Modi as well as other candidates for "delivering communally divisive speeches in gross violation" of the Model Code of Conduct (MCC).

Referring to its April 29 decision in another plea seeking "disqualification" of the PM from elections for six years claiming he delivered a speech seeking votes in the "name of god and place of worship", the Delhi High Court said, "This Court has observed while disposing of (previous petition) that any such pre-supposition is misconceived in as much as it is for the Election Commission of India to take an independent view in this regard".
