

CHEATED UNDER THE GUISE OF 'NATIONAL SECURITY THREAT'

Frauds dupe woman of Rs 1.6 cr with threat of arrest warrant

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PUNE, JUNE 9

A 67-YEAR-OLD Pune woman lost Rs 1.6 crore of her life savings to cyber criminals after receiving a call saying that her phone number was to send lewd messages and that she had been booked by the Mumbai police. She was threatened with an arrest warrant under the guise of 'national security threat' and 'Supreme Court case' and was warned that any disclosure of her ordeal would result in the arrest of her children and seizure of their assets.

A First Information Report in the case was registered at Cyber Crime police station of Pune city earlier this week by the 67-year-old woman who is a resident of Kothrud. In the first week of May she received a call from a man posing as an officer from Tilak Nagar police station in Mumbai. While the man identified himself as a sub inspector, the name he used was that of an IPS officer currently posted in Pune. He told her that lewd messages were sent from her phone number and had sought her personal, financial and Aadhar details for further clarification. He then claimed that an 'FIR had been registered in the 'Supreme Court' and that the charges included money laundering as well. The man told her that a CBI officer would call her and help.

The next day she received a video call from a man posing as a 'CBI officer' with the name of another serving IPS officer. The officer told her that in order to verify whether the money in her account was legitimate and not used in money laundering, all the funds from her account would have to be transferred to 'beneficiary accounts held by the Reserve Bank of India.' The officer told her that the case against her was covered under 'national secrets' and that there were serious criminal acts done from the account. Fearing legal consequences, the victim made large transfers of Rs one crore and Rs 29 lakh from two different accounts.

While making these transfers, the complainant was made to remain on messenger calls claiming she was under surveillance. She was told by the 'CBI officer' that if she discussed any details of the case with anyone in the family, her children would be arrested and their assets would be seized by the government. She was further asked to make transfers of Rs 50 lakh to be deposited to the 'Supreme Court.' The woman further transferred over Rs 30 lakh. As the cyber criminals kept raising their demands, the woman finally confided in her daughter who told her that she had been cheated by cyber criminals. She registered a complaint with the Cyber crime portal and the case was subsequently referred to the Cyber Crime police station of Pune City.

An officer from the Cyber crime police station said that the modus operandi of the crime is the same as that of drugs in parcel scam, however reasons for threatening the victim are different. In a similar case registered at Wakad police station in Pimpri Chinchwad, a software engineer in his 40s was cheated of Rs 40 lakh after he was told that his number was being 'used to abuse a woman' and he threatened action under 'National Secret Rule.'

In these kinds of scams, fraudsters impersonate IPS officers to deceive victims. They coerce victims into transferring money for various reasons, including customs fees or legal charges, and by also claiming that their bank accounts are at risk from hackers. Callers often intimidate victims as well, claiming they're under surveillance of the authorities.

Man who claimed he would be no more if Munde loses polls dies in accident

MOHAMED THAYER
MUMBAI, JUNE 9

A 38-YEAR-OLD truck driver who had shared a video through social media, claiming he would be "no more" if BJP leader Pankaja Munde loses the Lok Sabha elections from Beed, was mowed down by a bus Friday night, police said.

According to police, the deceased Sachin Kindiba Munde was upset and was hardly talking to anyone, after Munde lost the elections. Police said that prima facie it appears to be an accident, though they were checking if it was a case of suicide.

The incident took place on Ahmedpur-Andhori road near Bargaon Pati around 9pm on Friday when Sachin, a resident of Yestar in Latur's Ahmedpur, was sitting at one end of a narrow road, said an officer from Kingaon police station in Latur.

Assistant inspector Bahuaasaheb Khandare of Kingaon police station told The Indian Express, "At the particular point, the road width is so narrow that buses cannot take a direct turn. They need to reverse vehicle and maneuver to pass the point."

Around 8.30pm, the Yalderwadi night bus of the Maharashtra State Road Transport Corporation (MSRTC) was passing by Bargaon Pati where Sachin was sitting. When the bus was reversing to take the turn, it knocked down Sachin, leading to his death, police said.

"Even though Sachin was upset with the poll results, prima facie this appears to be negligence on the part of the driver who did not see him while reversing the bus," Khandare said.

Police have registered an FIR against the driver who has been arrested and the bus has been confiscated as part of the probe.

The deceased, who is unmarried and lived with his parents and brother, had released a video in which he claimed "Sachin will be no more if Pankaja Munde loses the poll". The video had gone viral at the time.

Pankaja Munde lost the Beed Lok Sabha poll to Congress Bajrang Sonawane by 6,553 votes in a very close contest. The result of Beed seat was the last to be announced by the Election Commission in the early hours of June 5.

The kin of the deceased said he was depressed since the poll result and had gone silent. His last rites were held on Saturday morning in the village, they added.

After flop show in LS elections, VBA says it was insulted by MVA

MANOJ MORE
PUNE, JUNE 9

THE PRAKASH Ambedkar-led Vanchit Bahujan Aghadi (VBA), which once again failed to win a single seat in the Lok Sabha elections, on Sunday said the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) insulted the party but still it tried its best to be a part of the Opposition alliance.

"We will introspect our failure in the Lok Sabha elections... Some of the constituents of the MVA deliberately did not get us included in the alliance. We were invited for meetings, but that was all for the media and the voters. We got trapped in their game plan. We were insulted... We could not convince the voters about the attitude of the MVA against us," the VBA said in a post on X.

"In the last meeting, the MVA told us that we would be given two seats. One was Mumbai North and the other was Akola. However, the MVA used to tell the media that it was offering four to six seats. But these seats did not include the ones where our candidates had secured more than one lakh votes. Moreover, Mumbai North was a difficult seat. And the Akola seat was also an uncertain one. It makes sense to contest on our own strength rather than go with the INDIA bloc and get defeated," VBA spokesperson Siddharth Mokele said.

"It was the VBA that tried to get itself included in the MVA. The MVA invited us for a few select meetings but not for all meetings. There is still some time for the Assembly elections. We will use this time to interact more with the voters," he added.

Mumbai-Goa Highway: 84-km stretch to be fully ready by December

SWEETY ADIMULAM
MUMBAI, JUNE 9

THE LONG-DELAYED and controversial Mumbai-Goa highway, specifically the 84-kilometre stretch between Panvel and Indapur, is expected to be fully completed by December this year, according to an official from the National Highway Authority of India (NHAI).

This 84-km stretch is divided into two packages. Package one, covering 42.3 km from Panvel to Kasu, has achieved over 85% physical progress. According to the NHAI official, out of 40 km of road concreting, about 39 km has been completed. Additionally, out of 23.7 km of parallel service road concreting, approximately 9 km has been finished in this package.

Additionally, some vehicular underpass work at Gadab in Pen taluka is also progressing. Package two, from Kasu to Indapur, also covers 42.3 km. The previous contractor completed 26.67 km of four-lane work.

For the remaining work, a contract was awarded to Kalyan Toll Infra Pvt Ltd. Currently, about 45% of the physical work in this package has been completed.

The 555-km long Mumbai-Goa highway has been planned to connect Mumbai and Goa, of which 460km lies in Maharashtra till Patradevi in Sindhudurg district

The official stated that the entire project is expected to be completed by December 2024.

In the meantime, the contractor is maintaining the road in good condition, on portions that have been completed to ensure smooth traffic flow.

Ongoing pre-monsoon works are progressing, and appropriate precautions are being taken to ensure traffic runs smoothly during the monsoon season.

The 555-km long Mumbai-Goa highway has been planned to connect Mumbai and Goa, of which 460km lies in Maharashtra till Patradevi in Sindhudurg district.

While 84 km out of the 460 km of the Mumbai-Goa highway in Maharashtra is being constructed by the NHAI, the remaining 376 km has been taken up by the state Public Works Department (PWD).
